

SOCIALIST CONGRESS

Delegate Sanail, of New York,

The Execution of the Manipur Princes Stir
India — British Mediterranean

BRUSSELS, Aug. 18.—During the Socialist congress to-day, Merline, an Italian An-

Belgian delegate, was arrested by the Belgian police upon the ground that he had previously been expelled from Belgium. While the arrest caused a commotion it was almost forgotten in the fright caused by the report that the police were contemplating more arrests. The fright, however was unfounded.

In the course of which he said that in the United States the sum of seventy thousand million dollars was annually actually stolen from the hands of those who produced them. "Amid all that wealth," said he, "misery increases so fast in the 'Land of the brave and the home of the free' is no reality a hell!"

Ramos, a Spanish delegate who has been admitted, here declared with much pride and enthusiasm that he represented fifty-five Anarchist associations having headquarters in Barcelona. Other Spanish representatives opposed his admission to the congress. An opposition

The difficulty of taking any decisive steps likely to benefit workmen as a whole, becomes more apparent as this strange congress is sifted. Everybody seems to have a deep grievance, but few seem to have a clearly defined remedy for them. It is thought discussion of the proposition where to hold the next international demonstration will cause the utterance of some information.

Execution of the Manipur Princes.
CALCUTTA, Aug. 18.—The execution of the Manipur princes has created a profound sensation throughout India. The press of India, which is printed in the native language, strongly condemns the so-called "hurried orders" issued for the execution, which the press declares were undergo a change in favor of the condemned princes after the publication of their defense. Tongai general's execution has particularly shocked native feeling. It is asserted he was too ill to stand up and the executioners were obliged to lift him upon a stool before the drop fell.

PARIS, Aug. 18.—The British Mediterranean squadron upon its arrival at Villefranche to-day was received with pomp and ceremony by the French war vessels there assembled. The latter saluted the British flag and their bands played "God Save the Queen" as the British ironclads anchored. In return the British admiral's flagship returned the salute and the bands played the Milwaukee. To this compliment the land batteries of Villefranche replied with another salute and everybody was satisfied. Villefranche was profusely decorated with flags in honor of the fleet and out of a grateful recognition of England's effort to give the French fleet a hearty reception at Portsmouth.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 18.—At a meeting of the American association to-day a resolution was adopted accepting the application of Milwaukee for membership. The Cincinnati club will be retained in full membership, but will transfer its dates to Milwaukee for the remainder of the present season.

Three Artists Drowned.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 18.—This afternoon a boat containing a party of four artists sketching on the river opposite this city capsized near the Kentucky shore and three were drowned. Those who perished were Clara Fechner, aged 18, daughter of a leading shoe manufacturer of this city

The President Starts for Bennington.
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 18.—A special train bearing President Harrison and party to Bennington, Vermont, to take part in the centennial festivities left Cape May this morning. Private Secretary Halford accom-

Flint Glass Factories to Resume.
PITTSBURGH, Aug. 18.—Secretary Dillon of the American Flint Glass Workers union received a telegram from President Smith saying all the scales were signed. The factories will all be in operation the first week of next month.

Boston, Aug. 18.—Edgar L. Davenport of the Boston Museum company, and Miss Lou Davis one of the belles of Bunker Hill district, drove to the house of the Rev. Henry F. Allen Saturday and were married by that clergyman. The wedding was quiet because of the recent death of Marriage Ends a Romance.

[Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.]
NEW YORK, Aug. 18.—This afternoon at the residence of Manager Frank McKee at No. 566 West One Hundred and Eighteenth street, a quiet wedding took place and forms the climax to a pretty little romance.

son of John C. New, editor of the Indianapolis Journal, and United States consul general in London, while on a visit to Detroit met Miss Catherine McLean, who was playing with Kate Castleton in the burlesque, "Faust up to Date." Mr. New one of the most popular young men in Indianapolis, constantly seen in society, a member of all the prominent clubs, sud-

Miss Catherine McLean is strikingly handsome and about twenty-two years old. She is tall, perfectly proportioned and dresses faultlessly. Any one who looks at Miss McLean once will look a second time. She was educated at a convent in Canada speaks several languages fluently and is an accomplished musician. Her last appearance on the stage was in "Eschschers."

Mr. New said to Mr. ... "Of course I know the fact of Miss McLean having been on the stage makes her a target for sensational paragraphing, but I would have no sensationalism that is not true left out. Miss McLean went on the stage from necessity, not from inclination. She will not return to the stage; she has not the slightest desire to do so. She is well educated, accomplished, of good

4 woman on earth. The only sign of men-
